Koichi Sakurai Appointed Executive Officer at GA technologies

Koichi Sakurai has been appointed as an executive officer at GA technologies Co., Ltd. (Headquarters: Minato-ku, Tokyo; Representative Director, President & CEO: Ryo Higuchi; Securities code: 3491) with effect from November 1, 2025.

Mr. Sakurai has been engaged in the field of real estate brokerage for individuals at a leading real estate sales company for 30 years and has a thorough familiarity with real estate transactions in the Greater Tokyo Area and Kansai region. With his particularly high expertise in sales of high-end real estate such as premium condominiums in city centers, he will lead our business as an executive officer. He also has abundant management experience, including leading an organization of several hundred people.

In the field of high-end real estate sales and leasing, which has been attracting even greater attention with the rise in asset values in recent years, he will pursue the further enhancement of customer experience and advance our business at an even more rapid speed than before.

New Executive Officer

Profile

Koichi Sakurai, Executive Officer

After graduating in 1996, he joined Sumitomo Real Estate Sales Co., Ltd. (currently Sumitomo Fudosan Step Co., Ltd.) and was assigned to the Headquarters Sales Office as an individual sales broker. After working as Deputy Head of the Headquarters Sales Office, he was appointed Head of the Yokohama Sales Office. In 2011, he became General Manager of the Sales Division, managing 39 outlets. In 2020, he was appointed an executive officer and in 2025 a managing executive officer. At the times of these appointments, he was the youngest general manager, executive officer, and managing executive officer in the company.

Comments upon Appointment

Throughout the past 30 years, I have been engaged in real estate brokerage for individuals. Through my involvement in various transactions, particularly in the fields of high-end real estate sales and leasing, I have felt that there are still many possibilities. From now on, I will do my best to promote further business expansion in the high-end real estate sales and leasing field and promote business leveraging the synergy of the entire group.
