The corporate governance of JINUSHI Co., Ltd. (the “Company”) is described below.

I. Basic Views on Corporate Governance, Capital Structure, Corporate Attributes and Other Basic Information

1. Basic Views Updated

We see Corporate Governance at the Company as a framework for energizing the Board of Directors, the decision-making body of the Company, and of effectively utilizing the Company’s functions of monitoring and supervising its senior management.

The various methods used for the smooth corporate management of the Company are encompassed within corporate governance, and by increasing transparency for the stakeholders involved with the Company (shareholders, customers, employees, business partners, local communities, etc.), we aim to establish a system that realizes efficient management.

Based on the above basic approach, our basic policy is to implement Japan’s Corporate Governance Code to ensure rationality in our decision-making, and by further enhancing our corporate value, to respond to the expectations of all our stakeholders.

(1) Management and business execution system

The Company has established the Audit and Supervisory Committee from the perspective of ensuring the transparency and fairness of the decision-making process, as well as to realize effective corporate governance. While holding deliberations and resolutions on the basic policy associated with the Group’s management and important matters as its decision-making body, by placing important matters on the agenda and through regular reports on important matters, the Board of Directors also supervises the state of operational execution.

(2) Management monitoring and supervisory system

The Company elects multiple Outside Directors so that the Company’s management can receive appropriate suggestions and advice from an objective standpoint and outside perspective and to strengthen the supervisory function of the Board of Directors.

To strengthen the independence, objectivity, and accountability of the functions of the Board of Directors associated with the nomination and remuneration of Directors, the Company has established a Nomination and Remuneration Committee that is chaired by an Independent Outside Director, and of which Independent Outside Directors account for a majority of the members.

When evaluating important items such as decisions on the nomination and remuneration of the senior management, items are first thoroughly deliberated and resolved at the Nomination and Remuneration Committee while sharing diverse opinions, and then proposed to the Board of Directors.

[Reasons for Non-Compliance With the Principles of Japan’s Corporate Governance Code]

The Company complies with every principle of Japan’s Corporate Governance Code.

[Disclosure Based on the Principles of Japan’s Corporate Governance Code] Updated

The Company’s disclosure based on the principles of Japan’s Corporate Governance Code is as follows.

[Principle 1.4 Shares Held as Cross-Shareholdings]

(1) Policy on cross-shareholdings

By working to maintain and strengthen business relationships with our business partners, we may acquire and hold shares in such business partners that we believe contribute to the medium- to long-term corporate value of the Company. Furthermore, based on the assessment results listed in (2), we decide whether to continue to hold or to sell shares.

(2) Details of assessment with regard to cross-shareholdings

Each year at the Board of Directors, we perform a comprehensive assessment of the economic rationale of share ownership, including the goal of ownership, trading conditions, and the capital cost of individual issues.

(3) Standards for exercising voting rights with regard to cross-shareholdings

In exercising our voting rights, the Company evaluates individual proposals and decides to vote for or against proposals from the standpoints of playing a role in the efficient, sound management of the issuing company and whether enhanced corporate value can be expected.

[Principle 1.7 Related Party Transactions]

While the Company does not conduct related party transactions in principle, in the rare event that transactions are conducted between the Company and its officers or principal shareholders, to ensure that the interests of the company or shareholders are not damaged, the Board of Directors discusses and approves the transactions in question ahead of time in accordance with laws and regulations and receives reports on the status of transactions. The majority of the Board of Directors is composed of Independent Outside Directors, and the Board of Directors passes resolutions on related party transactions while fully considering the rationality and validity of the transactions and ensuring that they do not diverge from general transaction standards.

Furthermore, the Company requests the submission of a “Survey Form on Transactions with Related Parties” from its officers once each year, confirming the presence of transactions with related parties.

[Supplementary Principle 2.4.1 Ensuring Diversity]

The Company believes that enhanced corporate value is realized by responding to the various needs of society through honest corporate activities.

Therefore, the Company believes that exchanging opinions among human resources with a wide range of values not bound by preconceived notions is precisely what makes effective decision-making possible and in turn contributes to enhanced corporate value. The Company proactively conducts hiring not bound by gender or nationality and builds a comfortable working environment, working to develop the next generation of management leaders.

The Company’s policies for human resource development and internal environment development are disclosed in the ESG Policy and the annual securities report (2 [Approach and initiatives for sustainability]).

(ESG Policy: <https://www.jinushi-jp.com/en/sustainability/esg-policy/>)

(Annual securities report: <https://www.jinushi-jp.com/ir/library.html>; available in Japanese only)

• [Women] As of December 31, 2025, there is one woman in a management position of the Company (excludes persons seconded to subsidiaries; hereinafter, the same shall apply in this principle), representing 6.7% of the total. In addition, the percentage of women among all employees is approximately 32.4%. In recent years, the Company has been actively recruiting female employees with the intention of expanding opportunities for future management appointments. In the future, we intend to increase the number of women in management positions or the ratio of women in management positions from the current level.

• [Midcareer hires] The Company is actively pursuing midcareer hiring of human resources who have diverse values and perspectives, and who demonstrate originality based on their experience and abilities to promote innovation in the real estate industry itself. As of December 31, 2025, the percentage of midcareer hires in management positions of the Company is 93.3%. The background for such a high standard is that, after the Company was founded in 2000, it began hiring new graduates in 2015, resulting in a high percentage of midcareer hires among employees (86.1% as of December 31, 2025). Therefore, the Company does not set the promotion of midcareer hires to management positions as a target, and we instead intend to promote individuals with motivation and ability to management positions, regardless of age.

• [Foreign nationals] As of December 31, 2025, there are no foreign nationals in management positions of the Company, however, in the event that the Company expects to expand the ratio of overseas business in the future, it will consider appointing foreign nationals as necessary.

The Company fairly evaluates and promotes employees with diverse skills, experiences, values, motivation, and abilities, regardless of race, nationality, religion, gender, age, disability, gender identity, or sexual orientation.

[Principle 2.6 Functioning as Asset Owner of Corporate Pension Funds]

Because the Company has no corporate pension system, the management of contributions to corporate pensions does not affect the Company's financial standing.

Furthermore, in the event a corporate pension system is introduced, we will pursue a responsible course of action based on a recognition of the expected roles of asset owners.

[Principle 3.1 Enhancement of Information Disclosure]

- (1) Company objectives (e.g., management philosophy), management strategies and business plans
The Company has formulated management philosophy and a medium-term management plan. In March 2024, the Company identified materiality (material issues) related to sustainability.
(Management philosophy: <https://www.jinushi-jp.com/en/company/vision/>)
(Results of Operations for the Fiscal Year Ended December 31, 2025: <https://www.jinushi-jp.com/en/ir/library.html>)
(Medium-Term Management Plan (2026–2028): <https://www.jinushi-jp.com/en/ir/medium-term-plan.html>)
(Materiality: <https://www.jinushi-jp.com/en/sustainability/materiality/>)
- (2) Basic views and policies on corporate governance based on each of the principles of the Code
 - * Please refer to I. Basic Views on Corporate Governance, Capital Structure, Corporate Attributes and Other Basic Information, 1. Basic Views.
- (3) Policies and procedures of the Board of Directors in determining the remuneration of the senior management and Directors
 - * Please refer to II. Business Management Organization and Other Corporate Governance Systems regarding Decision-making, Execution of Business, and Supervision in Management, 1. Organizational Composition and Operation, [Director Remuneration], Disclosure of Policy for Determining Remuneration Amounts or Calculation Methods Thereof. As of the writing of this document, all Independent Outside Directors are members of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee.
- (4) Policies and procedures of the Board of Directors in the appointment/removal of the senior management and the nomination of Director candidates
The Company has established a Nomination and Remuneration Committee that is chaired by an Independent Outside Director, and of which Independent Outside Directors account for a majority of the members.
The Representative Director and President is delegated by the Board of Directors to consult with the Nomination and Remuneration Committee on plans related to the appointment and dismissal of Directors. After deliberation and resolution by the committee, and with the consent of the Audit and Supervisory Committee in case of Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members, the plans for the appointment/ dismissal of Director candidates to be proposed to the general meeting of shareholders are resolved by the Board of Directors. Directors including Independent Outside Directors confirm the validity of Director candidates while receiving sufficient explanation from the Representative Director and President.
- (5) Explanations with respect to individual appointments and removals of the senior management and nominations of Director candidates based on (4) above by the Board of Directors
When nominating Director candidates, the reasons for the individual appointments and nominations are provided in the notice of the general meeting of shareholders (hereinafter, the "Convocation Notice").
(Convocation Notice: <https://www.jinushi-jp.com/en/ir/stock/meeting.html>)

[Supplementary Principle 3.1.3 Sustainability Initiatives]

The Company identified materiality related to sustainability in March 2024. The approach and initiatives for sustainability are disclosed on the Company's website and in the annual securities report.

(<https://www.jinushi-jp.com/en/sustainability/>)

(Annual securities report: <https://www.jinushi-jp.com/ir/library.html>; available in Japanese only)

The JINUSHI BUSINESS, the Company's unique real estate investment method that only invests in land rather than owning buildings, is a model that produces an extremely small volume of greenhouse gas emissions and industrial waste.

Through the JINUSHI BUSINESS, the Company aims to contribute to the realization of a sustainable society.

In August 2023, the Company expressed its endorsement of the recommendations of the Task Force on Climate-related Financial Disclosures (TCFD) and has disclosed information based on those recommendations.

(<https://www.jinushi-jp.com/en/sustainability/>).

In addition, the Company aims to be a major landowner in Japan as JINUSHI REIT grows. The main driving force of this is each one of our employees who embrace the management philosophy and code of conduct, and take on the challenge to further expand the JINUSHI BUSINESS, and the Company recognizes our human resources as an important management resource.

The Company believes that the "be an adult" in the code of conduct is essential to promote human-resource recruitment and promotion unconstrained by age and gender and to cultivate a corporate culture that is open (inclusive) and flat (egalitarian). The Company has identified this as one of the material issues and engages in human capital management.

We will continue to further enhance our efforts to date to solve various social issues and make appropriate information disclosures.

[Supplementary Principle 4.1.1 Scope of Matters Delegated to the Senior Management]

The Board of Directors resolves not only on items stipulated by laws and regulations, but also items for discussion stipulated by Articles of Incorporation and the Board of Directors rules.

Important items such as the medium-term management plan and the management policy are proposed to the Board of Directors after deliberation by the Budget Committee, etc.

From the viewpoint of separating execution and oversight and strengthening their functions, the authority to make decisions on business execution matters not reserved for the Board of Directors is delegated to the Representative Director and President, among others, and specific details are stipulated in the administration authority rules, etc.

[Principle 4.9 Independence Standards and Qualifications for Independent Outside Directors]

The Company selects candidates for Independent Outside Directors based on the independence standards established by the Tokyo Stock Exchange. The Board of Directors rules specify the maximum term of office for Outside Directors at eight years, in principle.

[Supplementary Principle 4.10.1 Authority, Roles, etc. of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee]

The Company has established a Nomination and Remuneration Committee that is chaired by an Independent Outside Director, and of which Independent Outside Directors account for a majority of the members. For the authority, roles, etc. of this committee, please refer to II. Business Management Organization and Other Corporate Governance Systems regarding Decision-making, Execution of Business, and Supervision in Management, 1. Organizational Composition and Operation, [Voluntary Committee], Supplementary Explanation.

[Supplementary Principle 4.11.1 Views on the Balance Between Knowledge, Experience and Skills of the Board of Directors as a Whole, Diversity and Size]

In addition to conducting proper supervision of operational execution at the Board of Directors, to conduct important decision-making through multi-faceted analysis, we believe that having a Board of Directors composed of Directors with diverse backgrounds is essential.

Furthermore, regarding the scale of the Board of Directors, after considering whether they can sufficiently exercise the above roles of the Board of Directors, we secure the appropriate human resources as necessary, and the Company currently has seven Directors including Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members (including four Independent Outside Directors).

Given the importance of forecasting changes in the management environment and reflecting that forecast in the management strategy in selecting Director candidates, we work to select well-balanced candidates with expertise, including candidates with management experience at other companies and knowledge of corporate management. Independent Outside Directors include individuals with management experience at other companies.

Furthermore, in the Convocation Notice, the Company has listed the knowledge, experience, and skills of each Director in a skill matrix.

(Convocation Notice: <https://www.jinushi-jp.com/en/ir/stock/meeting.html>)

[Supplementary Principle 4.11.2 Status of Concurrent Positions of Directors and Audit & Supervisory Board Members With Other Listed Companies' Officers]

So that they can exercise their roles and responsibilities appropriately, the Company has a principle that Directors (excluding part-time Audit and Supervisory Committee Members or Outside Directors) do not concurrently serve as officers at other listed companies.

In the event that a part-time Audit and Supervisory Committee Member or Outside Director concurrently serves as an officer at other listed companies, their role and responsibilities at the Company are limited to the extent that they can appropriately fulfill them, and their concurrent positions are disclosed annually.

The status of Directors who concurrently serve as officers at other listed companies is provided in the Convocation Notice, etc.

(Convocation Notice: <https://www.jinushi-jp.com/en/ir/stock/meeting.html>)

[Supplementary Principle 4.11.3 Analysis, Evaluation, and Disclosure of the Overall Effectiveness of the Board of Directors]

The Company analyzes and evaluates the effectiveness of the Board of Directors, and works to further improve the functioning of the Board of Directors. As the methods for the analysis and evaluation, the Company has used a third-party organization for the preparation and analysis of a questionnaire since 2024. Following an analysis of those results, the Board of Directors held discussions at its meeting on an annual basis.

As a result, while the Company believes that the effectiveness of the Board of Directors is ensured at its meeting held in February 2026, issues were pointed out from the viewpoint of further enhancing the operation and discussions, etc. of the Board of Directors, and going forward, the Company will examine ways to realize further enhancements to the operation and discussions, etc. of the Board of Directors. Aiming to continue to realize Board of Directors operations with a high level of effectiveness, the Company will strive for further improvement.

[Supplementary Principle 4.14.2 Policy on Training of Directors and Audit & Supervisory Board Members]

The Company conducts training on compliance, provides materials related to the principles of Japan's Corporate Governance Code and other matters, and carries out other measures in order to promote understanding by Directors of their roles and responsibilities.

Furthermore, the Company provides information as necessary to Outside Directors to deepen understanding of the Company's management philosophy, management policy, business activities, and organization.

The Company also offers support by providing the necessary opportunities for Directors to acquire knowledge related to business, finance, organizations, and laws and regulations to fulfill their roles and responsibilities, as well as its good offices and the required expenses.

[Principle 5.1 Policy for Constructive Dialogue With Shareholders]

The Company values constructive dialogue with shareholders and investors. Twice a year, we hold financial results briefings for institutional investors and analysts in which the Representative Director and President explains the Company's business results. The Representative Director and President or the Investor Relations and Public Relations Office also proactively meet with investors as much as possible.

For meeting requests from shareholders, the Investor Relations and Public Relations Office oversee overall dialogue with shareholders, while taking sufficient consideration to facilitate constructive dialogue with shareholders.

The General Manager of the Investor Relations and Public Relations Office also shares information by providing feedback to the Board of Directors on opinions received from investors and shareholders and other matters as appropriate.

For dialogue with investors, we ensure thorough management of insider information and strive to provide explanations based on disclosed information.

Explanation Relating to These Items Updated

The Company formulated the Medium-Term Management Plan (2026–2028) in February 2026 in order to continuously enhance corporate value. In this plan, the Company established financial targets for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2028, as well as set a target for return on equity (ROE) of approximately 15% as a management indicator. In addition, through the creation of profit that exceeds cost of shareholders' equity by recognizing that the Company's cost of shareholders' equity is around 6%–10% and by realizing the ROE target, the Company will maximize shareholder value.

Regarding changes in the management indicators, such as ROE, and other information, the Company will include such information in the materials for financial results that are disclosed every quarter.

Cooperation Among Audit and Supervisory Committee, Accounting Auditor and Internal Audit Office Updated

At the Company, while maintaining independence from each other as an audit organization, Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members, internal audits, accounting audits are coordinating and cooperating, and increasing the efficiency and effectiveness of audits.

Furthermore, the Company has established an Internal Audit Office, as an organization under the direct supervision of the Representative Director and President, that organizes overall internal controls and verifies the operational status.

For example, Directors who are members of the Audit and Supervisory Committee receive reports from the Accounting Auditor at the time of formulating audit plans and on a quarterly basis, and receive explanations from the internal auditors on the progress of internal audits, etc., and in addition to conducting systematic audits through three-party meetings, they also exchange information regularly with the Internal Audit Office to confirm the progress of internal audits. In implementing internal audits, internal auditors coordinate with Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members and exchange opinions with the Accounting Auditor in organizing and operating internal controls. During this process, they receive guidance as necessary and exchange and share information as necessary to increase the effectiveness of internal audits.

The status of internal audits is as follows.

(1) Internal auditing system

Regarding the internal auditing system, the Company has established the Internal Audit Office under the direct supervision of the Representative Director and President. Based on the internal audit rules, the Internal Audit Office conducts internal audits of each division and important subsidiary concerning the effectiveness of internal controls, appropriateness and efficiency of business execution, status of compliance with laws and regulations and other matters in accordance with the internal audit plan for each fiscal year approved by the Board of Directors. The results of internal audits are reported to the Representative Director and President, and then they are also reported to the Board of Directors and the Audit and Supervisory Committee (dual reporting lines). Furthermore, if the audit results contain issues raised or other matters that need to be improved, the Internal Audit Office confirms the status of improvement measures in the audited division, reports to the Representative Director and President as well as to the Board of Directors and the Audit and Supervisory Committee, and ensures the effectiveness of audits.

(2) Mutual cooperation with the Accounting Auditor and the Audit and Supervisory Committee

Through participation in three-party coordination meetings together with the Audit and Supervisory Committee and by receiving reports on the audits from the Accounting Auditor on a regular basis, the Internal Audit Office collects information and exchanges opinions as needed and cooperates with the Accounting Auditor and the Audit and Supervisory Committee. In addition, by reporting directly to the Accounting Auditor and the Audit and Supervisory Committee on a regular basis regarding the results of internal audits, the development and implementation of internal controls, and other matters, the Internal Audit Office shares information regarding the confirmation on the progress of internal audits, status of internal controls, etc., and cooperates.

As the audits by the Audit and Supervisory Committee, internal audits and accounting audits are conducted in an independent but mutually complementary manner, the Company is building an auditing structure that maintains objectivity and efficiency.

Disclosure of Policy for Determining Remuneration Amounts or Calculation Methods Thereof

Matters concerning the resolution of the general meeting of shareholders regarding remuneration, etc. for officers are as follows.

At the 20th Annual General Meeting of Shareholders held on June 25, 2020, it was resolved to set the maximum amount of remuneration for Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) at no more than ¥800,000 thousand per year, and that the amount of remuneration for Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) would not include the salary for employees concurrently serving as Directors. It was also resolved to set the maximum amount of remuneration for Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members at no more than ¥100,000 thousand per year.

At the 24th Annual General Meeting of Shareholders held on March 22, 2024, separate from the above amount of remuneration, etc. for Directors, it was resolved to set the total amount of the monetary claims paid as remuneration to the Directors of the Company (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members and Outside Directors) for the granting of restricted stock at no more than ¥200,000 thousand per year (excluding the salary for employees concurrently serving as Directors), and to set the total number of common shares of the Company to be issued or disposed of as a result thereof at no more than 80,000 shares per year.

As of the filing date of this report, the policy for determining remuneration for individual Directors is as follows. Additionally, the Company confirms the opinion of the Audit and Supervisory Committee in determining the amount of remuneration, etc. of Directors.

Regarding the amount of remuneration for Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members), based on consultation with the Nomination and Remuneration Committee, whose members are made up of a majority of Independent Outside Directors, the Board of Directors fully respects and discusses recommendations of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee, and within the scope of the total amount of remuneration approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders, the Board of Directors decides the amounts of individual remuneration.

Specifically, it is composed of “fixed remuneration as an annual salary” at a certain level based on the Director’s role in business execution and their responsibilities, taking into consideration the Company’s results and the results of individual Directors (divided evenly over 12 months and paid as monthly fixed remuneration), and “restricted stock remuneration” to provide incentives to continuously improve corporate value and further promote value sharing with shareholders (paid at a certain time each year). The Company has no performance-linked remuneration or retirement benefits.

The ratio of “fixed remuneration as an annual salary” to “restricted stock remuneration” is determined by the Board of Directors based on the recommendations of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee, which is consulted after considering the amount of “fixed remuneration as an annual salary” for each individual Director (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members).

For both “fixed remuneration as an annual salary” and “restricted stock remuneration,” each Director (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) shall prepare an individual remuneration proposal after evaluating the business results, etc. for the previous fiscal year, and meet individually with the Representative Director and President.

The Board of Directors holds decision-making authority on policy related to decisions on the amount of remuneration for each Director (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) and the calculation method. The Representative Director and President, designated by the Board of Directors, briefs the Nomination and Remuneration Committee on the plan for individual remuneration for each Director (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members), and the committee deliberates on the plan. Thereafter, the Representative Director and President provides a briefing on the timeline of the formulation of the amounts of individual remuneration at the Board of Directors, and based also on a report on the recommendation from the Nomination and Remuneration Committee, the individual amounts of remuneration are decided at the Board of Directors.

Furthermore, regarding remuneration for Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members, within the scope of the total amount of remuneration approved at the general meeting of shareholders, the amounts are decided based on discussion with Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members (Audit and Supervisory Committee). Specifically, remuneration is composed only of fixed remuneration as an annual salary at a certain level based on the role of supervising the business execution of Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members). We consider industry standards and decide the amounts of individual remuneration through discussion with Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members (Audit and Supervisory Committee).

[Supporting System for Outside Directors] Updated

So that Outside Directors can smoothly supervise and monitor management and thoroughly fulfill their role in improving the Company’s corporate governance, the Company has a system in place to provide the required materials and explain conditions as necessary through our administration division, Internal Audit Office, full-time Audit and Supervisory Committee Member, etc.

2. Matters on Functions of Business Execution, Audit and Supervision, Nomination and Remuneration Decisions (Overview of Current Corporate Governance System) Updated

- Management and business execution system

From the standpoint of ensuring transparency and fairness in decision-making and realizing effective corporate governance, the Company has established an Audit and Supervisory Committee.

While holding deliberations and resolutions on the basic policy associated with the Group's management and important matters as its decision-making body, by placing important matters on the agenda and through regular reports on important matters, the Board of Directors also supervises the state of operational execution.

- Management monitoring and supervisory system

The Company elects multiple Outside Directors so that the Company's management can receive appropriate suggestions and advice from an objective standpoint and outside perspective and to strengthen the supervisory function of the Board of Directors.

- Overview of corporate governance system

The Company's Board of Directors is composed of Hirofumi Nishira, who makes management decisions and performs business execution as the Representative Director and President, and Directors Tetsuya Matsuoka and Yuya Kitagawa, as well as Hiroyuki Nishimura, Aya Ozasa, Tomonori Ishiwata, and Masahiro Terada as Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members (all four are also Outside Directors). To prevent serious risks from materializing ahead of time, the Company has also established a system of corporate governance with an Internal Audit Office under the direct supervision of the Representative Director and President and an Accounting Auditor to audit the details of our financial statements and appropriateness of our accounting methods from a fair, third-party perspective.

- Establishment of a voluntary committee for decisions on nominations and remuneration

To strengthen the independence, objectivity, and accountability of the functions of the Board of Directors associated with the nomination and remuneration of Directors, the Company has established a Nomination and Remuneration Committee that is chaired by an Independent Outside Director, and of which Independent Outside Directors account for a majority of the members. When evaluating important items such as decisions on the nomination and remuneration of the senior management, items are first thoroughly deliberated and resolved at the Nomination and Remuneration Committee while sharing diverse opinions, and then proposed to the Board of Directors.

- Other voluntary committees

In addition to the above, the following committees have been established as key organizations.

(1) Compliance & Risk Management Committee

This committee examines and deliberates on matters related to the formulation of basic policies, plans and systems for compliance and risk management, and identifies risks in the Company and formulates and implements appropriate countermeasures in accordance with their importance. In addition, the results are reported to the Board of Directors.

(2) ESG Committee

This committee examines various policies, targets, and measures related to ESG promotion, drafts plans, and reports the results to the Board of Directors.

3. Reasons for Adoption of Current Corporate Governance System

To promote the sustainable growth of the Company and medium- to long-term improvement in corporate value, the Company's Board of Directors formulates and decides on overall policy such as corporate strategy to improve earnings power and capital efficiency. Based on this policy, the Board of Directors holds thorough discussion on individual issues and identifies and deliberates on risks. Furthermore, at the Board of Directors, the Directors supervise their mutual business execution. In addition to the above, by making all Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members Outside Directors, we have built a management supervisory system with a high level of effectiveness and independence.
