Macnica Holdings Releases AI-Friendly Version of Integrated Report LIMITLESS 2026
~Enabling AI-Driven Information Analysis; Investor Event on Oct. 6~

Yokohama, Japan, September 29, 2026 - Macnica Holdings, Inc. (TSE Prime 3132; "Macnica HD") today announced that it has released on its corporate website an AI-Friendly Version of its integrated report, LIMITLESS 2026, which was published on September 14, 2026. The AI-Friendly Version is designed to make the information in the report easier to gather and analyze using AI. Macnica HD would also like to remind stakeholders of its online investor event, LIMITLESS Dialogue ~Makikomu Macnica~, to be held on Tuesday, October 6, 2026.

■ About the AI-Friendly Version of Integrated Report LIMITLESS 2026

The AI-Friendly Version is an edition of the integrated report produced with machine readability (AI readability) in mind, enabling generative AI and other tools to read, summarize, and analyze its content accurately and efficiently.

In recent years, the use of generative AI and similar technologies for information gathering and analysis has become widespread among investors, analysts, rating agencies, and many other stakeholders. Indeed, the Financial Services Agency's "Progress Report 2026 on the Advancement of Asset Management Services"*¹ highlights the progress major asset management companies are making in applying generative AI to corporate analysis.

Recognizing that corporate information is increasingly being evaluated through AI, Macnica HD has released this version with the aim of providing an integrated report that is not only easy for people to read but also easy for machines, including AI, to understand. This allows a wide range of stakeholders to use the report in a format that facilitates information gathering and analysis.

Through these initiatives, Macnica HD aims to further enhance the quality of its dialogue with investors and to build deeper mutual understanding.

In conjunction with the publication of the integrated report, we will hold the investor event LIMITLESS Dialogue ~Makikomu Macnica~. At this event, in addition to Mr. Kazumasa Hara, Representative Director, President and CEO, and Mr. Shinichiro Omori, Lead Outside Director, we welcome Mr. Masahiko Komatsu, of Amova Asset Management, and Mr. Mitsuhiro Osawa, of ICHIYOSHI RESEARCH INSTITUTE.

Using the integrated report as a starting point, participants will gain a deeper understanding of our medium- to long-term growth strategy and approach to value creation. Through a candid exchange of views between Macnica HD management and Mr. Komatsu and Mr. Osawa, it offers an opportunity to explore the strategic background and management thinking that the integrated report alone cannot fully convey.

This event is intended for institutional investors, analysts, and individual investors. In addition to a Q&A session addressing questions submitted in advance, we will also take questions during the live stream. We look forward to your participation.
