Notice Concerning the Execution of a Joint Venture Agreement
Regarding the Establishment of a Joint Venture Company in Bangladesh

ICHINEN HOLDINGS CO., LTD. (Head Office: Yodogawa-ku, Osaka, President and CEO: Masashi Kuroda) and Advanced Chemical Industries PLC (Head Office: Dhaka, Bangladesh) (hereinafter “ACI PLC”), a leading conglomerate in Bangladesh, have been exploring opportunities to create new businesses in both Bangladesh and Japan.

In connection with these discussions, we hereby announce that we have entered into a Joint Venture Agreement (hereinafter the “JVA”) on September 30, 2026 with ACI PLC regarding the establishment of a joint venture company in Bangladesh (hereinafter the “Joint Venture Company”).

The planned shareholding ratio for the Joint Venture Company is 40% by us and 60% by ACI PLC. Further details will be announced once the procedures for establishing the Joint Venture Company have been completed.

■ Purpose of Establishing the Joint Venture Company in Bangladesh

In addition to driving the growth of its existing businesses, our group positions the exploration of new business domains and the expansion of its overseas operations as key growth strategies.

With a population of approximately 170 million, Bangladesh has recently garnered significant attention as one of the premier growth markets in South Asia. In this high-potential market, we aim to leverage the combined management resources and expertise of both companies by partnering with ACI PLC, which possesses a robust business foundation and an extensive network in the country. To realize new business opportunities in both Bangladesh and Japan, we will continue to advance its evaluations and discussions toward establishing the joint venture company in Bangladesh.
